Reports

Finance Committee – Mr. Marino, Chair of the RPB Finance Committee, reported that the Committee met earlier in the month to review the safety moment, and to discuss Authority compensation and the external auditor engagement renewal, which were tabled to the committee's August meeting. The Committee also reviewed the year-end financial report and quarterly dashboard with management. Finally, the Committee voted to reappoint Mr. Marino, as chair, for another term.

The next meeting is on Monday, August 10, 2026 at 5:00 p.m., via hybrid.

Land Use Committee – Mr. Levine, Chair of the Land Use Committee, reported on the meeting earlier in the month. The Committee met at the Lake Saltonstall Water Treatment Plant to receive an update on the water chestnut harvest at Furnace Pond. The Committee also elected Mr. Levine for another term as committee chair.

The next meeting is on Wednesday, August 12, 2026 at 5:30 p.m.

At 6:40 p.m., Mr. Eitzer entered the meeting.

Consumer Affairs Committee – Ms. Campbell, Chair of the Consumer Affairs Committee, reported on the Committee meeting earlier in the week. The committee met with management for a presentation for the RWA's Customer Care FY26 Global Metrics and reviewed the FY27 Global Metrics. The Committee also discussed the RWA's notification system and agreed to continue the discussion at its next meeting. The Office of Consumer Affairs reported on one ongoing consumer matter in Ansonia and provided an overview of a recent meeting with Aquarion Water Authority management.

Chair Campbell also reported that the Committee voted to approve her as Committee chair for the upcoming term.

The next meeting is on Monday, August 17, 2026 at 5:30 p.m., via hybrid.

Authority/Management - Mr. Borowy, Chair of the Authority, reported on the meeting earlier in the day. He highlighted that the Authority met in Bridgeport for the inaugural meeting of the Aquarion Water Authority ("AWA"). He stated that it was a good first meeting.

Mr. Borowy also reported that at the Authority meeting earlier in the day, the Authority also met as the Pension and Benefit Committee and the Compensation Committee.

Ms. LaMarr, Chair of the RWA Pension & Benefit Committee, reported on the meeting earlier in the day. She stated that the Committee met with Morgan Stanley to receive a quarterly market commentary, portfolio review, and risk analysis. She reported a strong quarter. The Committee also received an update of its 401k program and discussed information related to employee education, seminars, and one-on-one meetings with Morgan Stanley.

Mr. Curseaden, Chair of the RWA Compensation Committee, reported on the meeting earlier in the day. He stated that much of the discussion was held in executive session. When the Committee returned to public session he highlighted that the committee vote unanimously to appoint Mr. Lakshminarayanan as President of the RWA, and Ms. Kowalski as Chief Financial Officer of both the RWA and AWA. The Committee also discussed senior leadership compensation.

RPB members congratulated Mr. Lakshminarayanan and Ms. Kowalski on their appointments.

Mr. Borowy also reported the Authority held a discussion in executive session concerning a Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) search. After discussion, the committee authorized Mr. Borowy to enter into negotiations with a potential candidate for the CEO position.

RPB members discussed required approvals, role of CEO, reporting, and legislative requirements.

Mr. Lakshminarayanan, the RWA’s President, thanked RPB members for their confidence.

He reviewed revenues, operating and maintenance expenses for the month ending June 30, 2026, and stated the projected maintenance test for FY 2026 is 116%, with no shortfall. Contributing to the higher coverage was a recent refinancing, interest earnings, and the timing of cash receipts between FY 2026 and FY 2027.

He also reported that raw water storage levels as of July 20, 2026 are at 80%, compared to a long-term average of 85%. Rainfall through July 19, 2026 is 9.45 inches, which is 3.47 inches higher than the long-term average.

Chair Harvey acknowledged Atty. Donofrio of the Office of Consumer Affairs (OCA), who congratulated Mr. Lakshminarayanan and Ms. Kowalski on their recent appointments, noting that both have consistently gone above and beyond in their service to the OCA. Atty. Donofrio stated that the CEO position for the RWA and AWA would provide the structure and alignment necessary to create synergies between the organizations, resulting in maximum benefits for customers. He emphasized that the position is both important and necessary and expressed his support for and willingness to work with the CEO.

Chair Harvey reminded members to submit their mileage forms to the board office.

He also stated that any RPB member interested in being considered as a candidate for the upcoming Authority member term expiration should contact him, or the board office, by August 1st.

Chair Harvey reported that the next RPB meeting is scheduled for Thursday, August 27, 2026. And reminded the RPB Executive Committee that its next meeting is Wednesday, July 29, 2026.

Mr. Singh, the RWA’s Chief Information Digital Officer & Vice President of Customer Care, stated that he would be meeting with Ms. Campbell to discuss the RWA’s alert system procedure for discussion at the next meeting of the Consumer Affairs Committee.

Mr. Clifford recognized Mr. Lakshminarayanan for his work since his appointment, as RWA’s Interim President & CEO, and wished him the best during his tenure.

At 7:11 p.m., on motion made by Mr. Malloy and seconded by Ms. Campbell, the board voted to adjourn the meeting, with 101 votes cast in the affirmative.
