Jennifer: Okay. Do you need the safety moment up?

Greg: Please.

Jennifer: Let's see. Here we go. Can you see that?

Clifford: Yes.

Greg: Yes.

Jennifer: Okay.

Jeff: There you go, Tony. Go ride yours in a parking lot.

Greg: Yeah. Parking lot safety, depending on its location design and the time of day, parking lots can be risky places. Here are some basic safety principles that you can use to be safe when traveling to and from your car. Right? If you're on a bike, don't go over curbs. Bike in a highly visible and high lit area. Avoid rear or secluded exits. Keep valuables out of sight. Plan ahead, know where to go. If you feel threatened, try to walk with a friend, coworker, or security officer. Be alert to your surroundings. Walk in confidence, keep your head up and look around. Trust your instincts. Pretty clear.

Tony: Sounds good.

Greg: Huh?

Tony: Sounds good.

Greg: Yeah.

Clifford: Mm-hmm (affirmative).

Greg: Jennifer?

Jennifer: Yes?

Greg: Okay?

Jennifer: Okay.

Greg: Okay, we did the safety moment. We already approved the minutes. [crosstalk].

Jennifer: Oh you did?

Greg: Yep. And now we want to consider and possibly act on recommendation for the candidate for the authority member. So do you want to do that tonight?

Clifford: Yes.

Greg: I recommend that we do.

Clifford: Yes.

Greg: Okay. We have to go into an executive session for this.

Jennifer: Okay. Hang on just a minute. Let me get rid of this screen share.

[EXECUTIVE SESSION FROM 5:33 P.M. TO 5:41 P.M.]

Tony: I want to give the Michelle a chance there.

Michelle: Thank you.

Greg: All in favor?

Group: Aye.

Greg: Okay. All right. So I guess the meeting's over guys and ladies.
