8.2. REVIEW AND ADOPT EXISTING COMMITTEE CHARTER

Chair Curseaden noted that members received a copy of the Committee Charter for review. He noted the current operational status and future plans of the Committee. He reported that considering the status of Blue Drop, the Committee would continue with work on the opportunity that has been progressing related to non-core business and due diligence follow up but will pause proactive non-core M&A.

Chair Curseaden suggested a revised pace lasting into the late fall and possibly spring of 2026. A more comprehensive discussion would take place in the fall. Periodic updates on financial performance and deal structures would continue to take place but committee members suggested semi-annual/annual reviews to assess performance against projections.
